

Ashtin Gamblin

Ashtin Gamblin is a native to rural Illinois but currently resides in Colorado Springs, CO. She received her associates in criminal justice in 2022. In November of 2022, she survived the Club Q mass shooting, after taking part-time work at the bar. She was shot 9 times. While still working to complete her bachelor's in criminal justice, she has obtained certificates in human rights and human trafficking training. She focuses on advocating for victims rights and funding as well as police protocol for mass casualty events.

VICTIMS FIRST

© Victims First, Inc. 2024