

Christopher Morales

Christopher Morales is the son of a mother who was shot twice in the chest in the El Paso, Texas Wal-mart shooting in 2019. His grandmother was also shot in the stomach and survived, but his aunt, Tia Teressa Sanchez, was murdered from six gunshot wounds to the chest. Christopher is now an advocate for his family and the other 44 victims and families who were directly impacted on that tragic day, August 3, 2019. He is a strong advocate for the No Notoriety Campaign.

VICTIMS
FIRST

© Victims First, Inc. 2024

