

Amanda Bean

Amanda Bean was injured in the Route 91 Harvest Festival mass shooting in Las Vegas on Oct. 1, 2017. She comes to VictimsFirst to help both survivors and communities in the immediate aftermath of a mass casualty event. She brings her knowledge of planning, coordinating, and first-hand experience to assist others in navigating through these life-altering tragedies.

Amanda has a background in non-profit work, including Girl Scouts of the USA and the Special Olympics. In addition, she co-chaired the board of directors for the Toy Bank of Greater Paso Robles. She also has coordinated and trained volunteers for many organizations, including the California Mid-State Fair. She has a degree in Event Planning and Management with a minor in Integrated Marketing Communications from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. She is passionate about raising awareness and money for organizations through events and fundraisers. Amanda has worked on more than 14 mass shootings.

VICTIMS FIRST

© Victims First, Inc. 2024