

Shani-Angela Hervey

A self-described troublemaker, Shani-Angela is a black queer feminist deeply invested in collective healing and justice for communities impacted by violence and has been on the frontlines of numerous civic actions in her community. She holds a Master's degree in Public Administration from the University of Central Florida. Shani-Angela currently offers consulting through her business, Mixit Florida LLC, and brings more than 15 years of senior management experience in the nonprofit sector. In addition to her nonprofit expertise, she is an Air Force veteran and Military Sexual Assault (MST) survivor. She is committed to ensuring that healing justice plays a key role in building sustainable communities and movements with a focus on self-care for everyone doing the important work of fighting for social change. She is committed to building the world we want to see while dismantling the existing structures that oppress us.

VICTIMS FIRST

© Victims First, Inc. 2024

