

David Bilu

An alumnus of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida, David helped form an integral chain of care for the students, teachers, families, and victims following the high school shooting on February 14, 2018, which resulted in 17 deaths. He helped form a group of alumni of over 11,000 strong to assist in everything from Meal Trains to Emergency Funds and organizing the March for Our Lives in March 2020. David organized buses to send over 2,000 students and teachers to Washington DC for the March and also was Captain for the local March in Parkland. David worked directly with Anita Busch and the National Compassion Fund to secure millions in financial relief that went directly to the victim base. David is a licensed insurance broker currently living in Florida. He co-founded VictimsFirst as a nonprofit and served as a Director on the Board.
